field, are in town to attend the meeting.

George Kuntsch and Jay Faatz of Syracuse were present to press the claims of Syracuse for membership in the league. President Powers stated that applications for membership in the league had been received from Toronto and Syracuse. He was unable to state what would be the number of clubs in the league. It is probable that Scranton will be given a place in the league, although what action will be taken depends upon Erie and Wilkesbarre.

President Powers of the Eastern League said that last week he was offered the management of the St. Louis National League Club, but that the offer was declined.

APPEAL FROM HAWAII.

A Fair and Impartial Investigation Asked.

ANNEXATION IS DESIRED.

PORTLAND, Ore., Dec. 15 .- A. Feek, a Seattle contractor, arrived at his home last night from Honolulu. Mr. Feek was made the bearer of an address to the people of the United States from the American League of Honolulu. The address is dated December 4, and says:

"To the people of the United States. "We, like you, believe in good government, and having in co-operation with others, freed ourselves from the reign of corrupt rule and established a government of the best classes of society, we protest most emphatically against the reported assumption of President Cleveland that the provisional government of the Hawaiian Islands should cease to exist, because our proposition for union with the United States of America had failed to meet his approval. We insist that the present government of

This has been successfully done, not by citizens of 'he United States, but the movement was carried to a successful issue by people born and raised on the islands and others who had lived for many years have the successful the executive was carried to a successful issue by people born and raised on the islands and others who had lived A Petition. for many years here and were citizens of the country and loyal to its best interests and only organized for the overthrow of the old system after all hope of redress for many wrongs done by the late queen and her partisans had ceased to exist.

"We are ready to acknowledge that we, loving liberty and good government honestly administered, should have approved of the deposition of the late queen and the organization of the provisional government, and we do now give to the same provisional government our earnest and hearty sup-"In conclusion the people of Honolulu demand that the people of the United States will withhold their judgment until a fair and impartial investigation has been given the entire matter, an investigation which they earnestly court.

"If, after this, the American people do not desire to annex the islands, there is but one thing remaining to fill out the measure of the hope of Hawaii, and that is to be of the hope of Hawaii, and that is to be left entirely alone." An Exciting Runaway. The wife and son of Senator Hale of Maine were the unwilling participants in quite an exciting runaway accident last evening, but, fortunately, no one was injured. About 10:20, while being driven with her son to the railroad station, the horse slipped on the cable tracks at 7th street and the avenue and fell, breaking off one of the shafts short. Upon regaining his feet this broken shaft prodded th animal in such a manner that he started off on a run down the avenue. The coachman endeavored to stop the frightened beast by running him into a tree in front of the St. James Hotel, HORSE AND MAKE HIM EAT LESS TO tinuing down the avenue. The coachman pluckfly held on to the reins and remembering the hill on 4 1-2 street turned the horse into that street. When the top of the hill was reached on Louisiana avenue the coachman succeeded in throwing the ani-mal. Before the horse could regain his feet the man had jumped from his seat and opened the door of the carriage, releasing Mrs. Hale and her son from their perilous situation. Mrs. Hale was on her way to take the New York train, but was forced to remain over until this morning, when she left the city. A New Investment Company. Oliver B. Lee, George E. Cromwell, Clarence A. Storke and Lewis W. Johnson filed (FILED DECEMBER 13, 1893.)

REVENUE FROM SUGAR. Mr. Henry Brown Has a New Plan or the Subject. Mr. Henry A. Brown of Saxonville, Mass., well known as a sugar tariff expert, has for mulated a plan, which has been suggested to the ways and means committee, whereby sugar may be made a source of revenue without levying a duty. Mr. Brown suggests that all imported sugars intended for refining purposes shall be entered in bond and refined in bond under regulations to be prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury, and when such imported sugars have been refined, the refined out-turn or product, when entered out of bond for home consumption, shall pay to the government an internal revenue tax of one cent per pound on all such refined sugar above 18 D. S. in color, and three-fourths of one cent per pound on all such refined sugar not above

18 D. S. in color.

Mr. Brown's plan exempts exports of refined sugar, the product of imported sugar refined in bond, and regulates all allowance for loss in refining. It levies a duty on all sugars imported for consumption without refining, whether refined or unrefined when imported, of one and one-fourth cents per pound when above 16 D. S. in color, and one cent per pound when not above 16 D. S. in color, and provides that all such imported sugar testing 90 degrees pure sugar or sugar testing 90 degrees pure sugar or above in the polariscope shall be classed and pay duty above 16 D. S. in color. The plan exempts from tax all sugar produced in the United States from beets, cane, sor-shum and maple grown in this country. The rate prescribed may be changed to produce whatever revenue may be changed to The rate prescribed may be changed to produce whatever revenue may be required. Mr. Brown assumes that the present bounty can wisely be reduced pro rata to the tax levied, or if the rate be made one and one-half cents per pound internal revenue tax on grades above 18 D. S. in color and one and one-fourth cents on the lower grades of sugar refined in bond with a corresponding increase of duty on sugar imported for We insist that the present government of Hawaii has the same right to exist that the United States had after their successful revolution in 1776.

"In fact, the corruption and misgovernment that brought about the revolution of January last were so flagrant as to be unbearable, and the late queen had planned to not only continue her corrupt rule, but to set aside the constitution of the kingdom, and had attempted to illegally promulgate a new one, disfranchising many of the most intelligent citizens, and, by her high-handed outrages, had destroyed the last hope of improvement over the corrupt and illegal oppression by the executive power, so that no alternative was left but

The attorney for the Dietrick bolds for the sugar feined in bond with a corresponding increase of duty on sugar imported for consumption without refining, then the bounty may be abolished. Mr. Brown is satisfied that our sugar industries demand one and one-half cents per pound protection in some form and no more, judging from the cost of production, and that if duty be again levied, that and no more should be the rate on sugars not above 16 D. S. in color, with an extra rate on refined sugar, and all sugars above 16 D. S. in color or testing 90 degrees and above pure sugar.

JEZREEL BAPTIST CHURCH.

The Troubles Aired Today in the Police

Mr. Cox Held for the Grand Jury and Other Cases Dismissed-The Testimony.

In Judge Kimball's court this morning FOR EX there was a large assemblage of colored Baptists, members of Mount Jezeel Church, and the judge acted as moderator. Mr. FOR RE Harper was clerk of the meeting. Rev. FOR RE Philip Stewart, who had been called to fill the pulpit of the church for one year, appeared before today's meeting to answer charges, while William Clark and Robert FOR SA Cole, who were styled "brothers," were also accused. They plead not guilty to the charges, and Lawyer Leighton was present to look after the minister's side of the affair.

Two factions were represented, it appearing in the proof that the pastor and Cole and Clark were not members of the majority faction.

The trouble has already been stated in The Star, and was over the meeting held in the church after one of the deacons or trustees had issued a call on the previous night.
The pastor ordered the sexton to keep the

The pastor ordered the sexton to keep the clarch locked on Monday night, but one of the trustees had a key and he unlocked the dcor. About 10 o'clock that evening the Rev. Stewart appeared, said Isaiah Lewis, one of the witnesses, whereupon Clark clapped his hands and shouted: "Now we'll have it."

Archie Herris was specking about a letter

Archie Harris was speaking about a letter that the pastor had given to Maj. Cox, authorizing him to collect funds.

"Stewart," said Lewis, "rushed at Harris and said, 'If you say I gave Cox that letter, you're a dirty liar.'" Witness said that Clark called out, "Go for him. Then the greatest confusion prevailed. Women left their seats and screamed. He said that Clark had either a knife or razor in his "Clark's record is bad," said Witness Lewis, "and I know it."

"Is he a member of the church?" the judge asked. "Yes, sir; he's a member," responded Lewis. "He's there, and his being there is a matter over which we have no control." Lewis. The Factional Fight.

Daniel Williams, who was moderator of the meeting, gave his version of the factional difficulty, and then a short woman, Commissioners to lay a sidewalk on the peared and gave the other side of the who responded to the call "Sister Lee," ap-

Rev. Stewart's Testimony.

The Check Case. Against Maj. W. C. Cox, the colored politician, was filed a warrant charging false pretenses and embezzlement.

Mr. Webb told of the $50 contribution he gave to Maj. Cox, his check for $40 of the money showing that it was made payable to "W. C. Cox, treasurer." It was shown by the evidence that Cox was not even a member of the church.

Rev. Stewart told of the manner of keepwide-reaching organization and its alliance

"I've never done any preaching in my ife," he said.

"Have you not preached on street corners?" he was asked.
"No, sir." responded witness. "I done like Judge Kimball—go around and advise people to do right, but I've never passed around the hat." Preacher Stewart was then questioned concerning Lewis' spiritual aspirations, and he said: "The other night at the meeting Lewis pronounced the benediction before I could do it."

It appeared that the letter given Cox by the preacher was after he had collected part of Mr. Webb's money.

The defendant in his own behalf testified

The defendant in his own behalf testified that his wife was a member of the church. He said that there was a young woman member of the church with whom he kept company and she gave him the book. Defendant attempted to explain the action of the pastor and claimed that he had put in part of the money at the church rallies and that he still owed some of the money to the church.

Judge Miller said that if Cox exerted the same energy at the pick and shovel that he did in collecting money he would be able he did in collecting money he would be able to earn a living.

On the count charging false pretenses the court held the defendant for the grand jury and committed him in default of $1,000 se-

We have side had told the truth and so he dismissed join and have the medal of honor awarded by Santa Claus to wear and to identify him or her with the club and its good works. When Christmas comes there will be many homes made happier by the club. Every wearer of a club badge will have reason to be happier because of knowing that he has done something to relieve the suffering and to lighten the burdens of the The older folks will help the club. Its ring the accounts of the church. He said that Cox had given him $5 on account and asked him to extend the time, which he did.

Isaiah Lewis was called in this case and he told of how he work for the contral bureau for receiving contributions of money and supplies and distributing e told of how he got from Cox a paper, the he told of how he got from Cox a paper, the letter given him by the pastor.

He said that when he had a conversation with Cox the latter told him that he had collected the money and "blowed it in."

Counsel attempted to show by witness that he wanted to succeed the Rev. Stewners as pastor of the church but this witness that he could be connected with the schools, from the superintendent down to the last little tot. Principals, teachers and all are manifesting much interest in the club, and the result is that in every part of the city, in fact, in every square, and almost in every house, there is some one looking for those who may worthily become the beneficiaries of the club. No more thorough canvass could be made and no better means employed for insuring a distribution among those really in need. In addition, the aid of the Associated Charities and of the police will be given. Not money only is required. There will be need for all the contributions of supplies of a proper character that may be sent in. The kind of supplies needed are tea, sugar, potatoes and non-perishable provisions, which should be wrapped well so the packages will not break, and be plainly marked so as to show the contents of the packages. Such supplies may be sent to the nearest public school building.

There are hundreds of people in this city ready to give to the poor if they only knew how and where to give. In many house holds are quantities of good warm clothing, no longer in use, which would make many half-clad and shivering unfortunates comfortable. The Evening Star Santa Claus Club will welcome contributions of clothing. The garments should be clean and in good enough repair for use, so that they can be immediately distributed among needy people. Persons who have such clothing and are willing to give should notify The Evening Star by postal card or otherwise and a wagon will call at the house for the contribution.

High School Notes.

Tickets were issued Tuesday afternoon for the entertainments of the Western High School, which are to take place on the 19th and 20th instants. Through the kindness of the trustees of Linthicum Hall, Georgetown, that building has been secured for the occasion in place of the hall in the Curtis outlding.

In consequence of the Eastern's enter-tainment being held on Friday evening, the social clubs that had meetings set for that date have postponed them either to Satur-day or the following Friday evenings. Miss Buckley has returned to her duties at the Western after a prolonged absence on account of illness. Pleasant Entertainment.
